

Department: History, Political Science, and Philosophy
Program: BA in Political Science

Skill Set	Professional Application	Delivery of Skill Set Courses, extracurricular activities, etc. in which the skill set is introduced (I), reinforced (R), or mastered (M)
Core Skill: Critical Thinking	Comprehension of governmental organizations and processes; analysis of the checks and balances of power between governmental branches and institutions	POLS 2304 Introduction to Political Science (I), POLS 3302 Research and Analysis in Political Science (R)
C	Comprehension global political dynamics, understanding of the development of political principles under different cultural conditions	POLS 2340 World Politics (I), POLS 4312 Interest Groups and Political Parties (R), POLS 4341 International Relations (R)
Discipline-based Skill: Urban Development Policies	Comprehension of needs and options in the creations of policy for the sustainability of politically linked communities from towns to nations	POLS 4315 Urban Politics (I), POLS 4324 Technology and Society (R), POLS 4361 Public Administration (I)