

Bylaws - Student Advisory Board

NAME

The name of the organization shall be the Student Advisory Board (SAB) of the College of Business Administration at Texas A&M University-Kingsville.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Student Advisory Board shall be to act as a liaison between the students and the College's faculty and administrators in order to create a better learning environment within the College of Business Administration. In that capacity, the Student Advisory Board will meet monthly with the Dean of the College, and with the Associate Dean as necessary.

The Student Advisory Board will (a) keep the College of Business Administration and its programs closely attuned to the needs of current and future Texas A&M-Kingsville students and more specifically those majoring in Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) and assist in ensuring the programs and activities of the College of Business Administration are productive and of high quality.

OBJECTIVES

The Board shall assist the College of Business Administration by accomplishing the following specific objectives

Provide the best available advice and counsel for the continuing development of higher education for students at A&M-Kingsville by serving in an advisory capacity to the Dean of College of Business Administration.

Assist in developing a positive image for the College and promoting good relations between the faculty, administration, business community, and students of the College.

Provide advice and counsel to the Dean and faculty on all pertinent matters affecting the College, internal as well as external, so as best to relate the College and its programs to the changing needs of the student body.

Establish and maintain a system to inform students of new and existing educational opportunities

- Programs - The SAB will provide advice and feedback to the College on the perceived

At the March meeting of the Board, nominations for officer positions will take place.

“By proxy votes” will be accepted via email for those members unable to attend.

If the Chair position becomes vacant during the year, the Vice-Chair will take over the Chair’s role and a new Vice-Chair will be elected through the same process.

If another officer position becomes vacant during the year, a special election will take

AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to these bylaws shall be presented in writing to the Chair of the SAB and Dean of the College of Business Administration, and distributed by the Chair to members at or prior to the next scheduled meeting, at which time ratification shall be by a majority vote of the members present at a meeting of a quorum of the BOA.

ADOPTION

These bylaws shall be adopted by a majority vote of the initial membership at a meeting of the SAB.