

The following information is provided directly from the Title 19 of the Texas Administrative Code. Texas A&M University-Kingsville is an accredited and approved provider of preparation for Superintendent certification in the state of Texas, and reserves the right to establish local program requirements above and beyond those stated in rule.