

31.08.01.K1 Emeritus Designation

Approved: August 29, 2017
Reviewed: April 25, 2018
Revised: May 26, 2023
Next Scheduled Review: May 26, 2028

Rule Summary

The “Emeritus” titles are conferred upon individuals who have made significant contributions to Texas A&M University-Kingsville through long and distinguished service in administration, teaching, research and/or service.

This rule outlines the criteria, titles, selection, privileges, and responsibilities of those granted the “Emeritus” title. This rule supplements System Regulation 31.08.01.

Rule

1 CRITERIA

1.1 To be considered for emeritus status, a person must normally hold a tenured faculty appointment and have served the university for at least ten years. In appropriate situations, however, non-tenured faculty, administrators, and those who have served less than ten years may be considered.

1.2

3 SELECTION PROCEDURE

3.1 Each year the President shall appoint a standing Emeritus Rank Committee comprised of one member from each degree-granting college except the College of Arts and Sciences, which will have one representative from the arts and one from the sciences.

3.2 The committee shall meet before November 1 and shall choose a chair. The committee shall call for nominations from the general faculty on or before the first day of the month of October.

needed and indicate how its use will contribute to the instructional or research programs of the unit involved.

- 4.4.2 The department chair or unit head may support or fail to support the request from the emeritus personnel for office space. If supportive of the request, the department chair or unit head will write to the appropriate dean describing and requesting the allocation. The dean will forward on.