
Interpreter Services Process for DRC students

This process is intended exclusively for students currently enrolled at Texas A&M University-Kingsville and registered with the Disability Resource Center (DRC).

Students requiring interpretation services as an accommodation for their courses should complete this process immediately following registration to ensure that this accommodation is provided on the first day of class. If interpreters are unavailable, other appropriate services such as Remote CART, and Otter.ai will be considered.

Please request interpreting services in AIM and email a copy of your student detailed schedule to the DRC that includes the course, day, time, and location when requesting interpretation services for your classes.

Please note that interpreter service requires at least 3-5 business days of advance notice.

If you are unable to attend class, we kindly request that you inform the DRC promptly to cancel interpretation services.

For any questions or comments about requesting interpreters, please contact the Disability Resource Center at 361-593-3024 or via email at
